- I am over 18 years of age
- I support the mission and values of Kingston Community Health Centres
- I am an employee of KCHC
- I am representing a partner agency

MEMBERSHIP DUES

- One year membership - $1.00
- Lifetime membership - $5.00

Voting member – must be 18 years of age or older, must complete and sign the application form, must have paid their membership dues, and shares the mission, vision and values of KCHC. You may not be an employee of KCHC or representing a partner organization. You become a voting member when the Board Secretary receives the application form and dues. If you buy a one year membership you will need to renew annually to maintain your membership rights.

Why be a voting member – you will be notified of all Member meetings, ie: the annual general meetings, you may be invited to participate or serve on a committee, and you may be eligible to be elected or appointed as a Director. In order to have the right to vote in a given year you must be a Voting member for at least 50 days prior to the Annual General Meeting.

Associate member - includes KCHC employees and partner organizations who support the goals, objectives and vision of the Centres, must be 18 years of age or older, must complete and sign the application form and must have paid their membership dues. Associate Members have the right to notice of Member meetings, are allowed to attend Member meetings and to serve on committees of the Centres but are NOT eligible to vote as a Member or to serve as a Director.
